Super Lawyers, a Thomson Reuters business, is a rating service of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. Super Lawyers selects attorneys using a patented multiphase selection process. Peer nominations and evaluations are combined with third-party research. Each candidate is evaluated on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement. Selections are made on an annual, state-by-state basis.

The final published Super Lawyers list represents no more than 5 percent of the lawyers in the state.

The selection of the Rising Stars involves the same rigorous process. In addition, a candidate must be no older than 40 years old or in practice for no more than 10 years. Each year, no more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in a state are selected by the research team at Super Lawyers to receive this honor.

In addition to individual honors, Hardison & Cochran was named among the “Best Law Firms” in the 2015 edition of U.S. News – Best Lawyers.
